R.I.P.

SUZY SPICELAND MICHELSON 1966-2016

Suzy Spiceland Michelson (MM#5559) sadly died in a car accident on May 1, 2016. She was 49 years old and well on her way to completing her 100th marathon and finishing the 50 states. She was dearly loved by many in the Maniac family. She will be missed.

Last October, Steve Hughes (MM#2154) ran his 400th marathon at the Southernmost Marathon.

The Maniacs become a teenager!

On May 25, 2016 the Marathon Maniacs turned 13 years old.

It was 13 years ago on the Sunday afternoon in Couer d'Alene, Idaho that Chris, Steven and Tony were celebrating the completion of another marathon that the term "Marathon Maniacs" was first used to describe them. The idea of forming a club for like minded runners was hatched and now nearly 13,000 runners have joined the ranks of the "insane".

HAPPY BIRTHDAY MANIACS!

MARATHON MANIACS PACE TEAM

The Official Marathon Maniac Pace Teams

Did you know the Marathon Maniacs have an official pace team? Since Maniacs are no stranger to running 26.2 miles many of you are good running these runs.

There are many great reasons to join the pace team and many rewarding aspects to being a pacer.

Requirements to be a Pacer

- Must have completed 15 marathons for your desired distance to pace
- Marathon Pacer: Must have completed the marathon distance 20 minutes faster than your pace time for the full marathon (example: to pace a 4:00 hour you must have run a 3:40 marathon)
- To be in good standing with the Marathon Maniacs and all dues current
- Have your MM race page updated so that we can link your information
- CPR Certification by event date-please contact your local fire department for a FREE class

Pacer Perks

- Free to join!
- Waived entry fee
- Sublimated Pace Shirts
- A chance to carry the coveted maniac cat pace sign
- Discounts on lodging when applicable
- Fun pacing runners to their goal finish time

Best of luck to you securing your spot on the pace team!

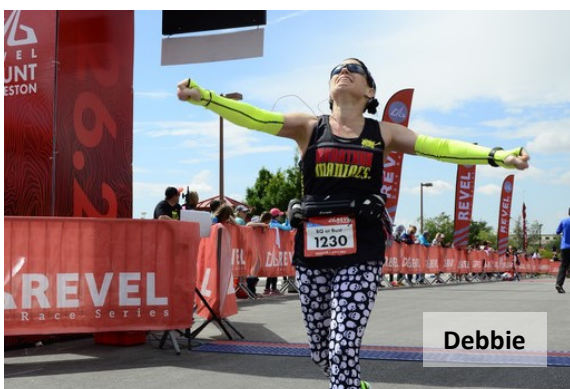

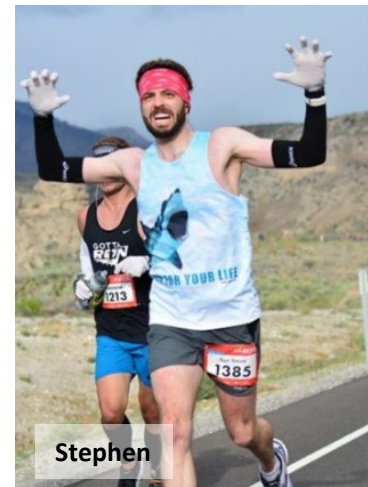

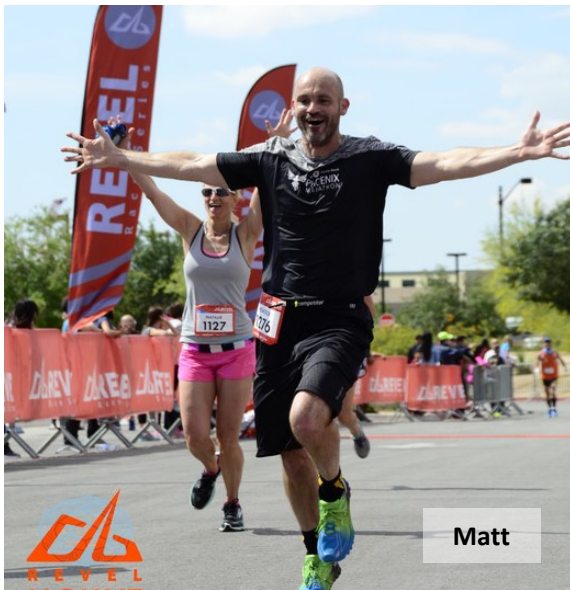

For more information on which races we are looking for pacers and on getting signed up please visit:

DOUBLE AGENTS

Since the formation of the Half Fanatics in 2009, a runner who is a member of both clubs is called a Double Agent.

Well, the Main Maniacs have decided to create an asylum dedicated to those who are Double Agents. In order to be assigned a Double Agent number you must have your dues paid and updated in both the MM and HF. Your name and e-mail address must match both clubs. Each day a program will run to generate new members.

New gear is available for Double Agents as well as a whole new set of challenges as you climb peaks.

For more information visit the Maniacs web site.

FROM THE EDITOR...

Way was madness! So many marathons across the country. Rhode Island, Michigan, California, Wisconsin, Oregon, Washington, Ohio, Florida, Nevada and so many other states! I hope everyone had a great month.

Happy Running!

MANIAC ONGOING DISCOUNTS

Jeff "Boneman" Bollman (#1058)

With the new website comes a new way to identify race discounts. All discounts are now located on the race calendar page. Look for the gold coin following the race name, that signifies a discount. Click the coin and after a brief disclaimer reminding us that discounts are for members only, the code will be revealed along with the amount saved.

The programmers are working on lots of website items and one is a non-race related discount link. Until that's complete, you'll need to email Jeff Bollman (jeff@marathonmaniacs.com) for the running warehouse discount.

RHETORICAL REVELATIONS AND W(RITES)... FROM THE RAMBUNCTIOUS REV

Good evening, Mr. Prez!

We have so many new friends in here! They might not know about the Marathon Maniacs' book, that some future-day best seller, "The Marathon Maniacs: the World's Most Insane Running Club", available now on the web-site. Being new Maniacs, they really would love reading it. Oh, we know the stories in it are true, but the outside world evidently is in some disbelief.

Teaches math.
Doesn't fathom Maniac math.

I visited with an esteemed, elder, yet spry university professor friend of mine a few months ago, and gave him the book as a gift. Well, he called me recently, said he had shared it around the campus professorial offices, and it made its way up the ranks through the English Department to the Provost's office! Next thing you know, there was a discussion, much praise evidently, and a letter was crafted to be sent to You ! ? ! Back down the chain the letter went to my professor friend, tasked with asking me to deliver the letter to you personally, because it contains a request. So, well, here you go...

"To the Brilliant Author(s) of this Landmark Work of Fiction:

Your anthology of creative essays, purportedly written by many members of the fictional club, 'The Marathon Maniacs', has been received in this prestigious eastern University's ivy halls with indescribable enthusiasm and kudos from our own world- renown authors and scholars, many holding legendary international awards, who sit now trembling, astounded at your genius.

Your fantastical premise behind the essays is what has baffled us into feeling, well, a bit like buffoons by comparison. How did you come up with the concept?: Apparently ordinary people, from un-extraordinary walks of life, merely lace up their running shoes and proceed -- with no magic, sorcery, car chase scenes, futuristic machinery, or other artificialities of pop-movie-trickery -- to do the sublimely unimaginable and unfathomable feats with their feet, on roads, trails, mountains, and deserts alike, and this with a repetitive endurance most incomprehensible, with nothing more than a bit of store-bought Gatorade and black cherry toothpastes to sustain them!

By you, Fiction has now been reborn! These plain person on commonplace weekends competing unstoppably? And nary an overdone alien, misguided chemist, or Angelina Jolie character offered up, as in our old, weary literary formulas? AND, your heroes and heroines perform these Herculean feats ... for simply a collarless shirt, a humble medal, and mostly for the camaraderie? Unexpectedly delightful in its simplicity! Ever so refreshing! WHAT a premise! This book, Gentlemen, is imaginative and inspiring!

(To be blunt with you, Sir, the giants of utopian literature here are retreating to newly requested sabbaticals, blushing in the face of their own absurd fictional premises! Cornered in my office, they clumsily admit to bowing deferentially to your genius.)

RHETORICAL REVELATIONS AND W(RITES)... FROM THE RAMBUNCTIOUS REV

Sir(s), if you would, we were desperately disappointed to find that our copy of the book sits unsigned by ye.

We do not mean to presume upon your time, and, without meaning to be crass materialists, we ask out of your kindness that you might embellish and authenticate our copy with your signature(s), thus increasing its worth ten thousand fold, for we are quite certain that along about 2050 A.D., the University would at that time be able to auction off this invaluable volume, thereby raising an extraordinary sum with which we might replace our current dilapidating Pavilion Plantarfascieitus with a new track and field stadium and indoor training facility, which we would then ceremoniously dedicate as the "Maniacal Megaplex".

Should you ever travel to these parts, we really must share a cigar at the Club. Fifty 26.2 milers in a year, indeed! HA!

*Our heartiest compliments and most professorial praise,
Dean Don Erroritius, R.e.v., G.e.l, D.n.f."*

Hey Prez. I met the Provost myself. Didn't have the heart to tell him the stuff in the book is real. Of course, half the time, I'm not so sure it is either.

Luvya!
