DOUBLE AGENTS

Since the formation of the Half Fanatics in 2009, a runner who is a member of both clubs is called a Double Agent.

Well, the Main Maniacs have decided to create an asylum dedicated to those who are Double Agents. In order to be assigned a Double Agent number you must have your dues paid and updated in both the MM and HF. Your name and e-mail address must match both clubs. Each day a program will run to generate new members.

New gear is available for Double Agents as well as a whole new set of challenges as you climb peaks.

For more information visit the Maniacs web site.

MANIAC ONGOING DISCOUNTS

Jeff "Boneman" Bollman (#1058)

With the new website comes a new way to identify race discounts. All discounts are now located on the race calendar page. Look for the gold coin following the race name, that signifies a discount. Click the coin and after a brief disclaimer reminding us that discounts are for members only, the code will be revealed along with the amount saved.

The programmers are working on lots of website items and one is a non-race related discount link. Until that's complete, you'll need to email Jeff Bollman (jeff@marathonmaniacs.com) for the running skirts and running warehouse discounts.

RHETORICAL REVELATIONS AND W(RITES)... FROM THE RAMBUNCTIOUS REV

Hiya Prez,

When we were about at 100 Maniacs in the club, we thought we were really quite different, remember? Oh, we had started as ordinary people, until we ran and ran and ran and ran.

Now, eleven years later, older, wiser, creakier, some of us with scores more marathons done, some with hundreds of more done, we are used to this frequent-marathoning idea, and the membership has climbed from knowing everyone to over 12,000 members, and so we are “less different” perhaps than we once were?

And the marathons themselves: are they getting to be old-hat? We’ve got the routine down, we more or less know what’s coming, the specialness...drifting away?

Doesn’t have to. Not at all.

Every marathon, if we look at afresh, has new experiences in it, something new to teach us, new memories to hold, new friends to make, and maybe, just maybe, somethings new to create.

Same thing with Christmas and the holidays, yet again. Oh, we’ve gotten rather used to the lights, the shoppers’ anxieties, the weight-bearing stollens, the traffic. And all those lights and tinsel, pretty as they might appear, rather come to obscure the elements that make Christmas timeless, profound, life-changing.

Like?

Christmas came out of a peculiar and unique miracle, reported by originally ordinary people. Themselves shocked, they spread the word that this Jesus had came back from the dead, after a nasty end-week of persecution and execution. They talked excitedly about a series of unexpected, unanticipated, experiences, experiences which opened eyes like ours, eyes that had followed him daily, though they did not at first grasp the subtleties or triumph in store. At first confused, then amazed and convinced, all the pieces came together, within weeks, and the prior years’ of stories now held together anew. Their perspectival-shift was about transcendent truth: God had visited us. God had started in the form of a baby, in a middle-eastern backwater town, laid in the animals’ trough, out back in a barn., and he had grown to be the Resurrected One.

Ingloriously begun, humble love, empowered by the Creator of the Universe began endless appreciation in those who saw it, and grew gratefulness in those who would see it yet.

Grasped today in the quiet, it makes the old carols meaningfully new again.

Glory indeed be to the newborn King, Prez. And may we get out, and go, and run, and effect peace on earth wherever our travels take us.

Luvya,
Rev
